FRESHMEN

At first we're FRESHMEN, beginning in a new world - SHY, SELF-CONSCIOUS, but in a few weeks we are PLAYFUL and EAGER.

SOPHOMORES

Next, as SOPHOMORES, we've learned the ropes - we're SPIRITED, COCKY, SILLY, and finally ACCEPTED.

JUNIORS

Then we become "upperclassmen" - JUNIORS - COMPLACENT, CAREFREE, BLITHE; we are ASPIRING, and become INVOLVED.

SENIORS

TOP: Cathy Tinnes, Linda Stephens, and Chris Haag "snaking" around the bonfire. Rick Gorvett - seniors still conscious of final rankings. CENTER: Cathy Johnston. Kathy Poppino painting a Homecoming window. Jeff Allen - work, work, work - who says senior year is so much fun? RIGHT: Sunshine Sandy Reid. Graduates Wendy Elstrom, Leanne Elslager, and Glen Eggert.

And suddenly in a fast four years we're SENIORS-MORE MATURE, HAPPY yet SAD, APATHETIC yet FUTURE-CONSCIOUS, and very SENTIMENTAL.

TOP: Sharon Visserman concentrates on her last high school Homecoming float. Mary Swanson and Terry Ferro share a laugh at Turnabout. CENTER: Sandy Westley, Ann Schibur, and Linda Klosterman; Jordi Bosch; Kim Kuhiman (Bergquist) - How can four years be so long, yet go by so fast? Carol Hedrick, Kathy Poppino, and Cathy Swick - who "nose" what goes on at Homecoming? LEFT: A dancing "seniorita" (a la Ken Mueller) at Homecoming dance. Puppets Tina Luers and Cathy Bosso at dance show.

Changes

1977-78 was a time of continued inflation and trouble in the Middle-East, but interest in disco dancing and outer space movies such as "Star Wars" (Homecoming theme) and "Close Encounters of the Third Kind" was part of the year too. Winter weather again made news, giving us over eighty inches of snow, a record. The big happening locally, though, was our changing school.

Robin Stroebel, queen of the hill, with Alison Satterfield.

Lori Gorski and friend.

When classes began on August 29 construction was well underway, ground having been broken in July for a new learning resource center, commons, cafeteria, and offices on the south with field house, swimming pool, and greenhouse on the north. Fire drills with new exit routes were initiated immediately, for northwest and cafeteria doors were to be closed with plywood partitions. In March the small gym became the cafeteria, and receiving doors became a main entrance. Work did not directly interfere with classes, however, except for the occasional sound of air hammers or the smell of hot tar, and student superintendents had plenty to watch as bulldozers filled old holes and dug new ones, cranes hoisted steel beams, and bricklayers gave a new shape to the walls. As the year ended, sentimental seniors realized the "old" school was gone forever, but underclassmen and staff members anticipated the change and challenge with excitement.

Home Ec.

Home Economics offered a new individualized class, Clothing Careers, in which students worked on projects which personally interested them.

Male interest in Home Economics classes is rapidly rising. Jim Gordon, the first boy ever to take Beginning Clothing, excelled in it. Four boys also took Child Development, which, along with the Contemporary Life class (which deals with problems of today), is rising in popularity.

Life's A Song

Vocal Music groups made over 20 appearances during the year. Christmas, traditionally the busiest season for the choirs, brought the second consecutive invitation to sing at the Northwestern Station in Chicago.

In April the choir and small-group members spent a day at Lisle, presenting two major programs and exchanging ideas.

The informal concert in May featured songs from "Chorus Line," "Pippin," and "The Wiz" with the swing choir adding some unique choreography.

P. E.

P. E. classes have become co-educational, thanks to Title IX. Students also had the chance to choose the activity or sport in which they wanted to participate. In general, girls like the change, but the boys say they can not be as rough as they were in all - boy classes.

Protons, Protozoa, and Posies

Biology may not have been the most popular class, but since it is a science requirement, it had the largest enrollment. Over 300 students participated in the traditionally rainy field trip to Herrick's Lake.

Horticulture remained the most popular elective, and once again the class travelled to Chicago for the Flower Show in the spring.

Homecoming

It rained on the parade, it rained on the game; it even rained the night of the dance, but nothing could dampen the spirit of Homecoming Activities lasted from October 3 through October 8. It is possible that, as with Luke in the theme movie "Starwars," the "force" was with us in making Homecoming '77 a success.

Heidi Miller, Beth Kennedy, Sharon Foster, Takako Hagiwara, Karen Parker, Nick Payet, Florence Cathelin.

Juniors blast off to a victory.

“Our Town”

Despite a change in plays and a snowstorm the “fall” play, “Our Town” by Thornton Wilder, was finally presented on Friday and Saturday evenings, December 9 and 10, in Weyrauch Auditorium. Miss Nancy Crawford and student Dick Waterhouse directed the three-act classic which deals with life in Grovers Corners, New Hampshire (1901-1913). It could be life in our town too, where people still fall in love, marry, have children, and die — where life is “awful and yet wonderful.”

Cast members not pictured were Andy Baronowski, Tony Baronowski, and Clifford Black.

Thom Wierenga, Barb Verdooren: George and Emily. Roberta Root, stage manager and minister.

Signs Of The Times

Styles have advanced from the "hippie" type outfits of the sixties, but sometimes there is nothing like good old comfortable jeans and a T shirt. Whether they boast a title, a sales pitch, or just plain nonsense, T shirts have become a popular form of non-vocal communication.

Roman Revel

The annual Latin Banquet, a reenactment of a Roman party, was held Tuesday, April 25. Dressed in bedsheet togas and tunics, past and present Latin students feasted on the Roman traditional of chicken, relishes, bread, cheese, fruit, and grape juice.

Those in the beginning classes of Latin became slaves for the evening and proceeded to feed, fan, and entertain the guests, advanced Latin students, and teachers, who lounged about the cafeteria floor, enjoying life.

PROM COURT: Lori Walter with Pat Andrews, Kathy Miessler with Mike Wheeland, Kathy Luers with Ron Eynik, Kelly Krafft with Dean Holland, Pam Kerner with Andy Vanagunas.

The Prom, planned by juniors under the direction of Howard Swan and Paula Mennecke, was held Friday evening, April 28, at Orrie's in Wheaton. The court (pictured at right) was selected earlier in the week by juniors from a list of girls who were planning to attend the Prom. Although the band which played was a last-minute replacement for another group, nothing could spoil this spring evening.

Roy Kiiskila

Roy Kiiskila Retires

Roy Kiiskila, Chairman of the Business Education Department, retired in June after thirty full years at WCCHS. Mr. and Mrs. Kiiskila will move to Red Granite, Wisconsin. Besides teaching in the business department, Mr. Kiiskila, a proud Finn, also taught night classes in English to many new Americans. The Kiiskilas have had two exchange students, from Argentina and Peru, and a Vietnamese boy live in their home. On Monday, June 5, Mr. Kiiskila was honored at a reception in the LRC. He will be missed as a teacher and as a man.

Dr. Jerald Saimon with Florence Cathelin, France, and (BELOW) with Mr. Robert Willett.

Dr. Jerald J. Saimon, Superintendent of School Districts 33 and 94, resigned in April after nine years of service to West Chicago. His accomplishments include the current expansion program at the high school, the Central Education Service Center, updating of physical education facilities; Life-Safety repairs; and bilingual, special-education, and vocational programs. Dr. Saimon was honored at a reception at the Center on Sunday, May 21. In September he will begin a position at St. Francis College, Joliet. He will be remembered for his many achievements.

Dr. Saimon Resigns

Baccalaureate, Honor's Night

On June 5, 1978, in Weyrauch Auditorium graduates were honored. Concert Choir and Orchestra provided music. After the invocation by the Reverend Donald B. Niswander, First Methodist Church, senior class Pres. Renee Caputo spoke for her classmates. Supt. Dr. Jerald J. Saimon introduced Valedictorian Terence Ferro, Salutatorian Mary Swanson, and National Merit winners. Terry Ferro named recipients of scholarships, and Prin. Dr. Richard M. Kamm honored students with attendance records and citizenship awards. Mary Swanson introduced National Honor Society members. Following remarks by AFS Advisor Vera Sorenson, Florence Cathelin, France, responded. Student assistants were Student Council Pres. David Collins, who named those who had been on Honor roll, Parick Colford, Pres. Elect of class of 1979, and Michael Turner, 1978-79 Pres.-Elect of Student Council. The Reverend Niswander spoke on "Steps to a Mature Character."

National Merit Finalists: David J. Nelson, Christine Velbel, and Elizabeth Niswander.

Love That Game!

Girls' Tennis, as a team, did not have a successful season. Varsity record was 4-8 overall and 1-6 conf.; J.V., 3-6 overall and 1-6 conf.

There were, however, many individual accomplishments. (See captions.) In two major upsets, Sue Matson and Donna Hookham defeated the first seed in their division at conf., and at Districts they won their first two rounds, missing a chance at the state meet by one match.

Something new on We-Go's golf team - a girl! Freshman Candy Clausen, first girl ever, joined We-Go's squad this year.

Varsity ended their season with a record of 4-3 in Conference and an even 9-9 overall. Sophomores' record was 2-16, but the team had some promising freshmen which will be a definite plus for next year's team

Tough Season for Wildcats

The 4-5 record does not tell it all. The Wildcats beat three outstanding teams: Geneva, a 3A play-off team; second place Wheaton Central, and first place Glenbard South on a rainy Homecoming evening. They lost the last game to Glenbard North in double overtime, We-go's first football overtime. This was a year of change for the Wildcats with a new coach and a new starting line-up. Co-Captains were Chris Bieniek, Ruben Pineda, and Mike Bowen.

Volleyball became a fall, rather than a winter sport as a result of IHSA seasoning. Practice began in the late summer, and those few extra weeks of practice really helped as Varsity finished with a 7-7 conference record, 19-13 overall, and a near miss on a trip to sectional play. J.V. had a good season too, ending 10-4 in conference and 19-6 overall.

We-Go did not have a pool, but we had winning swimmers. Junior Eileen Haag placed first in the 100-yard backstroke, 1:05.1, and second in the 200-yard individual medley, 2:28.2, at the District Meet in St. Charles. At the State Meet, New Trier West H.S., she placed second in the 100-yard backstroke at 1:03.4 and as a result was named a First Team All-Stater. Three boys swam in the boys' District Meet at Hinsdale Central. Tom Wiberg swam the 50-yard and 100-yard freestyle, and Bob Wiberg swam the 100-yard breaststroke. Jeff Gary swam the 200-yard freestyle and qualified for State Finals in Evanston in the 100-yard freestyle with a time of 49.588 seconds.

Dribble, Dribble, Dunk!

In addition to the usual Varsity and J.V. girls' basketball teams a third team, Frosh-Soph, was formed. This gave more girls the opportunity to play and gain actual "on-the-court experience," which will be helpful for future Varsity teams.

Unfortunately, this year's Varsity had a rather disappointing year, ending the season with a 5-16 record. They did, however, succeed in winning the Sub-Regionals by beating Wheaton Christian, 52-27, and Glenbard East by an exciting 39-37. They then lost to Glenbard North 47-55 in the Regionals. The J.V. finished their season with a 6-13 record.

Girls' Gymnastics

Girl Gymnasts suffered a disappointing season. With an overall record of 0-5, the young team took eighth in DVC. Much experience, learning, and muscle building took place, however; and that, coupled with sophomore Linda Jakopchek's placing fifth in conference on unevens, provides for a hopeful outlook for next season.

Boys' Tennis

Underclassmen were the strong point of the boys' tennis team. Sophomores Sonny Denges and Rich Briggs played first and second singles. Doubles team R. Ayres and K. Frantz took first for first doubles in sophomore conference and later moved up to Varsity. Varsity finished 5-12 overall, 0-7 in conference. Sophomores ended 7-8 overall, 2-5 (tied for fourth) in conference. Varsity doubles team S. Davis and D. Nelson were voted Most Valuable, and R. Briggs, Most Improved.

Take Me Out To The...

Rain dealt the softball season a rough blow, causing the cancellation of all 12 non-conference games, usually considered "practice" or "experience" games. Plunging straight into conference, the team still finished 4 - 10. Elected to All Conference Team were outfielder Carol Hedrick and infielder Colleen Courtney.

Diamond Time

It was a season of ups and downs for the baseball team. Finishing with 3-11 overall and 7-14 in conference, the Wildcats tied for sixth in DVC standings. Some of the high points included T. Malia's no-hitter against St. Francis and M. Klingberg's one-hitter against Wheaton North. The Cats also succeeded in knocking Naperville North out of sole possession of first place and into a tie for that spot by defeating them 2-1 in the last game of the season.

Most Valuable Player C. Dastych, holding the season's highest batting average, was voted to the All-Conference team. M. Wheeland, M. Klingberg, and T. Malia all received honorable mentions. T. Nogaj was voted Most Improved.

Bridge

With a new advisor and rookie staff, the 77-78 Bridge worked toward creating a new image for itself. One of this year's novelties was a page called "Personals," devoted to private, and generally undecipherable, messages. Published every three weeks with average circulation of 1200, the Bridge put out a special edition at Christmas and at exam time a literary supplement. In April, an article written by Christa Velbel was awarded first place out of 57 entries in features competition of the DuPage Press Association High School Newspaper Contest.

Exchange Student Program

This year We-Go had six foreign exchange students: Takako Hagiwara from Japan, Nick Payet and Florence Cathelin from France, Rodrigo Pizzaro and Jordi Bosch from Chile, and Karen Parker from Australia. We also sent four students to foreign countries: Lyda Horvath to Peru, Debbie Durkee to Japan, Sharon Foster to Norway, and Heidi Miller to Brazil. Getting to know people from other countries makes one realize how much all people have in common.

Student Support Project: SSP

SSP (Student Support Project), under the direction of Robert Owens, is basically a peer counselling group in which students help each other solve their problems. Through a group trust relationship each individual is better able to understand himself and others. At the end of its first year the core group began to train 20 new members who will replace those who graduate as well as increase the number of student counsellors.

The International Thespian Society attempts to promote excellence in high school theatre. To become a member a student must work a minimum of 100 hours and on a variety of crews. To earn money Thespians ran a concession stand at basketball games and wrestling meets. They attended a professional production in Chicago of "A Chorus Line." In the spring 16 new members were initiated in a candlelight ceremony followed later in the week by a picnic at Blackwell Forest Preserve.
