Every picture tells a story

Senior Lunch

Senior Prom

Music Class

Senior Homecoming

The Class of 2011 has been writing their high school stories for four years, and now it is time to move on to bigger and better opportunities.

Early Chapters

When we were younger, our parents helped write our chapters for us with family vacations, birthday parties, and priceless moments captured on film. To read your peers' earliest chapters sent in by family, see pages 2-13.

The Story Continues

As we prepare to head off to college, a new chapter of our lives will begin. A new world will be open for us with new friendships and experiences. See where your fellow students' stories will continue on pages 14-15.

Final High School Chapters

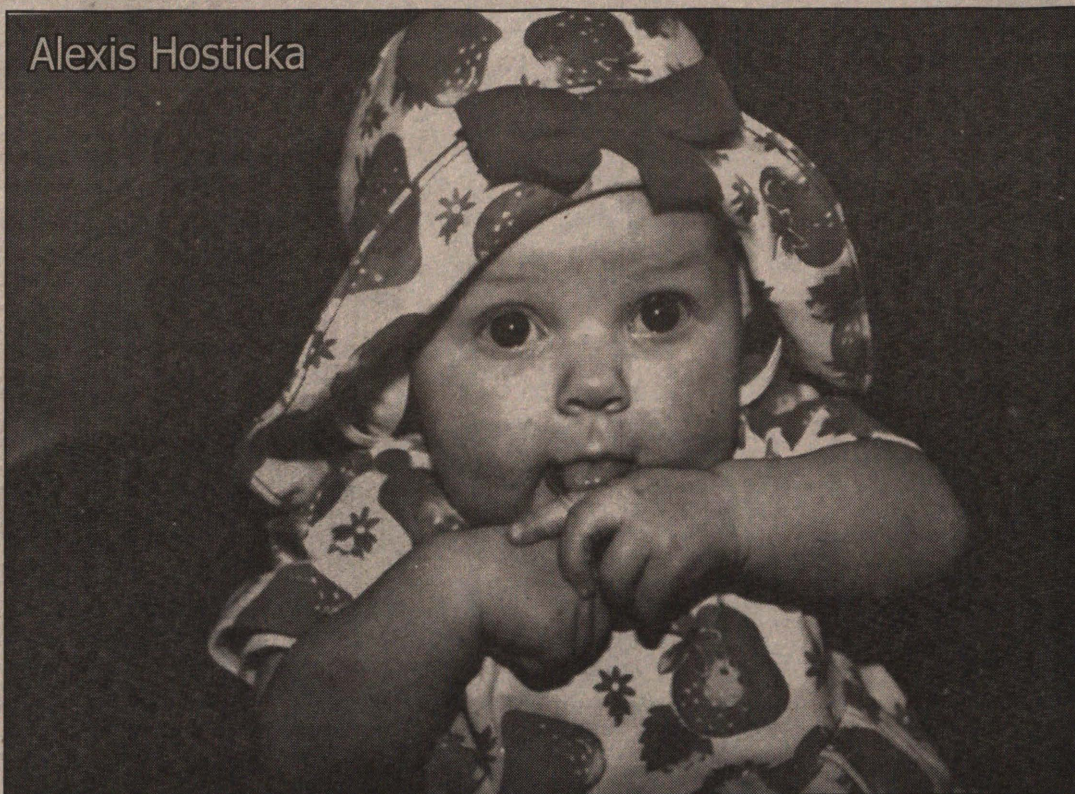

We have worked together to write our stories of our high school careers. For the stories of senior homecoming, football games, senior prom, and the little moments that got us through the last four years, see the senior collage, page 16.

Where the story begins

When they were little, their parents helped them write the story. Now, they're helping them finish this chapter with wishes of good luck and congratulations.
