We, the Class of 1959, wish to show our appreciation for your guidance and understanding throughout our high school years by respectfully dedicating this yearbook to you, Mr. George Barthell.

DEDICATION

Foreword

Here's West Chicago, brave and bold, to make up the line, to fight, to hold. Here's West Chicago. Here's your campus, pride of students and alumni. Each season has the beauty of changing colors and the winding walks are admired by students and visitors alike.

Here are your activities. Whether test forms or term papers, schedules, or endless activities, students are always busy.

Here are your events, planned by you and the school. Some are traditional and some are new. Performances requiring hard work and long hours are all remembered as good times and fine experiences.

Here are your fellow students. Whether frosh or senior, here is where you find your friends—fellow students, old friends, and new acquaintances.

Here are your sports. Restrictions and long hours of practice resulting in aching muscles and black eyes. Who cares; it's fun win or lose.

Here are your seniors—a memorable four years. A new step, a new life. You've thought of graduation, now it's over. Parading in your cap and gown, your parents' proud smile.

Perhaps in the years to come, this book will help us understand what this school has done with its broad curriculum and its varied activities to prepare us for tomorrow.

Senior Class

JERRY KERNER

"Jer"

This handsome boy a girl's dream
Was Captain of our Football team.

JAMES MESSER

"Jim"

His mind is occupied with studies and other cares, mostly other cares.

In September of '55 we entered We-Go High as bewildered freshmen with Miss Stahl as our class adviser. That year we elected Mike Adamson, President; Jack Simms, Vice-President; Dick Kloubec, Treasurer; and "Tubby" Warkentin, Secretary. We also sponsored the Freshman Basketball Tournament, and Freshman Day for the newcomers to We-Go.

With Miss Geiken guiding us our sophomore year, we elected two new officers: Jerry Kerner as Vice-President and Sharon Weissing as Secretary. We put on our first party, "The Plymouth Rock," which was a great success. The spring elections were won by the 59ers, a political party of four boys with Jerry Kerner, President; Bob Horrobin, Vice-President; Dick Kloubec, Treasurer; and Steve Willeumier, Secretary. Since our four Student Council members were also boys, we elected Mary Lou Hansen as Parliamentarian.

Our junior year we again had a (tremendous) Thanksgiving party, "The Turkey Trot." In mid-year Bob Horrobin moved and Jim Messer was elected to the Vice-Presidency. About 50 juniors went on the Washington trip that spring, accompanied by Miss Mahoney and Mr. Kiiskila, our class adviser. Also that spring we re-elected our four officers and presented the junior class play, "Father's Been to Mars." Our biggest event was the junior-senior prom, "Sayonara."

We started our senior year with the homecoming dance, and put on another play, "The Matchmaker," under the direction of Mr. Hanley. Our Christmas party "Winter Dreams" went over dreamily. Under the urgings of our class adviser, Mr. Smith, we financed the first printed edition of the We-Go.

As we leave with reluctant footsteps, we recall the past with a touch of sentiment but look to the future with ambition.

STEVE WILLEUMIER

"Steve"

Aiming for the moon.

RICHARD KLOUBEC

"Rosy"

Heading for a golden future.

JACK ADAM
"Jack"
Smile darn ya, smile.

Juniors

The class of 1960 has been an enthusiastic and energetic group since its freshman year. We worked industriously to construct a float depicting the theme "Grind 'Em," and whole heartedly worked to present a successful Freshman Day program.

In our sophomore year we charged in again. We planned a very spirited homecoming bonfire. "Vac the Vikings" was the theme of our float and a class Valentine party concluded the sophomore activities.

Now juniors, all ready and willing to proceed into our busiest year thus far—a year which consisted of an all school party and a class play and the prom. The officers will be working hard to lead the class of '60 through another year of successful accomplishments.

Sophomores

CLASS OFFICERS: G. Timm, K. Weimer, R. Roloff, R. Mayer.

We, the Class of '61 had our beginning on September 3, 1957 as freshmen treading our way somewhat fearfully into a new life--that of high school students. Miss Stahl, our adviser, and our officers--Chuck Wilde, Jim Rakow, Kathy Weimer, and Bobbie Roloff---guided us in our earliest projects. With just the right mixture of fun and work our homecoming float, "We-Go Strikes Tonight"; G.A.A. initiation; "Spring Fever," our class party; and an exciting winning football season followed one another in quick succession.

Smoothly our sophomore year has progressed under the guidance of our officers and our adviser, Miss Geiken. Our homecoming float, "Bulldogs Bark up the Wrong Tree," the bonfire and snakedance, and sock hops after basketball games among other things contributed to the fun and excitement. That is our calendar up until now, but--BEWARE!!! You'll be hearing much about the great class of '61 in the years to come.

Freshmen

The freshman class got off to an impressive start in its first year in high school by a good showing in the magazine drive. We continued our good work by electing six proud representatives to the student council, Ed Brown, Jim Hammond, Dick Jahns, Mary Margaret Miller, Barry Smith, and Kay Stroker. Our busy class also created a homecoming float with the theme, "De-Feet 'Em."

As the yearbook went to press, we were planning to elect class officers in February, manage the concession at the Senior-Faculty Basketball game, plan our class party, and finally (Gasp) in May elect our officers and student council representatives for next year.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society has been established for the promotion of scholastic ambition among the student body and for the recognition of outstanding students. These juniors and seniors are selected by the faculty not only on the basis of their academic achievements, but also for their exhibition of the qualities of character, leadership, and service, these four characteristics being the principal complements of knowledge, the aim of education. Since the re-establishment of the West Chicago chapter in 1953, 74 students have been inducted into the Society, nine of them members of the 1959 graduating class.
