Equality Is Goal Of Title IX

Chefs Class for boys only is out. Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, passed by Congress, was designed "to eliminate discrimination on the basis of sex in any education program or activity receiving federal financial assistance."

All courses - including home economics, vocational arts, industrial arts, health, business, and PE classes - must be coeducational, and counseling and aptitude tests must be non-discriminatory. The exceptions are PE participation in "body contact" sports such as wrestling and football and portions of health classes dealing with human sexuality. Some parts of the law are effective now; schools are given three years to comply with other parts. Fair treatment is still a goal in America.

A New Year Brings A New Look

During the early fall of 1975 work was completed on the football field, the all-weather track, and a building on the southwest corner of the field for the storage of outdoor equipment, garage space, and restrooms. Three offices, one on each floor, were built in the south window-well, and the older restrooms were remodeled. Also new windows and blinds in the 1926 section improved the appearance of the school, both inside and out.

Smaller changes, but important ones for students, included the addition of ping pong tables in the Commons and in Room 226, the painting of colorful stripes and murals in rooms 156, 226, and 232 by students in the Title I Summer Program under the direction of Ms. Svec, and the placement, by Student Council, of a juke box in the Commons.

Basic Skills

Bilingual Program Continues Growing

Many new things have been added to the Bilingual Program this year: a Bi-Math class and an English class for beginning students, which is taught twice a day. Also the department added an additional Spanish course, Spanish III. The foremost goals are to have a command of two languages and an understanding of Mexican-American culture. A few Vietnamese students are also participating in the program.

Arts And Crafts Is A Big Hit

The art department showed a most dramatic interest in Arts and Crafts, which is taught seven periods a day. This year's Ad-craft Competition was won by Paula Bloxam whose ad was run by the Wheaton Journal. The DuPage Conference Art Show was on display February 23 through March 5. Consumer Education, Required Course

Business is one of the strongest and most influential social institutions in American society today. The Business Education Department strives to meet the needs of each of the students, whether it is in the area of vocational training or for personal use. The most recent addition to the business curriculum is Consumer Education which is required for graduation. Personal Typing continues to be one of the most popular courses.

Words Have Power

Writing an essay, reading a classic, giving a speech, creating a poem, producing a skit, learning to punctuate, analyzing an editorial, acquiring new vocabulary words, doing research — all are activities a We-Go student might experience in an English class. The English program is the largest and most diverse program in the school, possibly because all students are required to complete six semesters in this area.

Industrial Arts Cuts It!

The Industrial Arts Department is large and quite varied. It features four main areas: Woods, Drafting, Electronics, and Metals. Each area offers three courses, ranging from general to advanced to specialized. Each area of the department attempts to provide not only for the average student but also for the highly motivated student who plans a career in industrial arts.

Drafting requires concentration, as Rick Burton demonstrates.

IRO: Inter-Related Occupation

Inter-Related Occupation, a vocational education program, is divided into two phases: classroom and work experience. The class meets daily in the morning; students receive on-the-job training at a selected place of employment in the afternoon. The student is paid a wage comparable to what any trainee would receive. VICA (p. 122) is an integral part of this program. The teacher is Mr. James Garbe, and the Vocational Coordinator is Mr. Larry McNamara.

Libraries Have It!

The learning resource center increased its services although theft continued to be a problem. Pop music on cassettes and play-back units could be checked out hourly or overnight. Students could view various programs on video equipment or video-tape their own programs, and over 150 periodicals were available for professional and student use.

Computers are here to stay! A computer unit was added to all freshman Math classes, while Data Processing was the most popular course. Advanced Placement Calculus offered the opportunity to juniors and seniors to take a college level mathematics course while still in high school. Vocal Music

After getting off to an unusually early start, We-Go's choral groups maintained a busy pace throughout the year. Beginning with the first Fall Concert ever given, Oct. 28, the season extended through Baccalaureate in June. The choirs and ensembles sang for four other major events: Christmas Vespers, a Winter Concert, a Spring Choral Concert, and a Senior Concert. This year a swing choir was formed, which brought the number of major vocal groups to six. Mr. Ronald Benner was the director.

Crops, Chemicals, And Kinetic Theories

In this age of scientific advancement, We-Go students had many opportunities for study. Once again, Horticulture (Applied Biology) class was the most popular, being taught seven periods a day. The Horticulture classes grew a variety of crops, including mums and poinsettias which were sold during the fall and winter. The largest crop, the spring bedding plants, was sold in May. Bio-Chemistry was taught this year for the first time in three years. In Bio-Chemistry the students studied chemistry as related to life science.

In 1976 American History Goes Independent

The Spirit of '76! The Battle of Bunker Hill! The Shot Heard 'Round the World! In keeping with America's 200th birthday, three American History classes declared their independence by going on independent study. These classes were American History, 1603-1877; American History, 1877-Present; and Foreign Policy, all taught by Mr. Strecker. Consumer Education also gave many students the option of individualized study. Sociology was the most popular course. Two new teachers joined the Social Studies staff this year: Mrs. Katsion and Mr. Zimmerman, who took Mr. Holcombe's position.

Facts, Food, Fun: Language Night

Language Night, an annual affair promoting universal brotherhood and communication, was held by the language clubs on Oct. 2, 1975. This year's festivities includes a parable presented by French Club, a German Club presentation depicting the use of German syllables in our modern vocabulary, a council of gods held by Spanish Club, and a lengthy parody of Roman myths presented by Latin Club.

Refreshments in the cafeteria followed the stage presentation. Each club provided food representative of its language.

This year's all-school play, a lively adaptation of the well known children's fairy tale, "Hansel and Gretel," was performed for several elementary schools in the area.

Many of the roles were double-cast, each cast with equal status. In the familiar lead role of Gretel were Donna Modica and Maria Petragallo; playing Hansel were Terry Ferro and Dan Robbins. The witch was Cindy Allen. Dick Waterhouse was the father, and Beth Wampole and Lin Schmult played the mother. Debbie Anderson and Chris Peterson shared the character of Kiko. The play was directed by Ms. Cheri Waldorf and student Sharon Smith. Despite a young cast a fine show was given, and all participants received invaluable experience.

Thespian One-Acts

Comedy and mystery are both popular theater themes, and the Thespian One-Acts utilized both. "Keep Smiling" presented a hilarious look at a tie salesman's first day on the job. In "The Monday's Paw" an English family was terrorized by an mysterious relic and its legend. Beth Wampole directed "The Monkey's Paw," and Sharon Smith, "Keep Smiling."

Margie Iuro lectures Mike McMurry in "Keep Smiling."

Smart shopper Coral Schieve.

Coral and Debbie Anderson decide on gift.

Winifred Thomassen 33 Years At We-Go!

Miss Winifred Thomassen retired from the education field in June after completing 35 years of work, 33 of them at WCCHS. In 1943 she began here as a business teacher. Later she became dean of girls, and in 1971, Administrative Assistant. No one who worked with her will forget her dedication, her competence, her efficiency, and her spirit.

The WCCHS Teachers' Association, the school board, and the community paid tribute to "Wini" Thomassen and Frances McGawn at a tea in the learning center after Baccalaureate.

A good-bye hug for "Wini" from Dianne DeWolfe.

An admiring look from Chris Murname for Mrs. McGawn.

How's retirement, Mr. Holcombe?

Foreign Language Department Head Frances McGawn retired in June after completing 19 years in education, 14 of them at West Chicago. As well as being honored by the Teachers' Association and the school board, Mrs. McGawn was guest of honor at a surprise farewell party organized by French students for their respected and considerate teacher. Of Thee I Sing

National Committee: "We should never have sold Rhode Island."

Coral Schieve's priorities: "After money - love!"

The musical "Of Thee I Sing," presented April 2, 3, and 4, pokes fun at politicians in the mythical election of 1924. Written in 1931 by George S. Kaufman and Morrie Ryskind, the Pulitzer prize winning musical also features lyrics and musical score by George and Ira Gershwin. Under the direction of Ms. Cheri Waldorf and Mr. Gene Haney, an excellent show was presented.

The year is 1924, and the National Committee must come up with a strategy to bolster their party's image. In a flash of inspiration their leader creates a one-word platform - LOVE! However, their unfortunate candidate is betrothed to a Southern belle although he loves a sweet and simple secretary who makes corn muffins. He marries the secretary, Mary Turner; the belle, Diana Devereaux, causes international repercussions. Eventually all ends well, for when the President cannot fulfill his duties, his obligations are assumed by - the Vice-President!

Production staff included Ms. Gwen Reno, artistic director; Mr. John Walton, lighting and special effects; Kem Dailey, student director; Doug Koltz, stage manager; Victor Alcazar, house manager; Debbie Anderson and Jenny Havlin, choreographers.

Bathing beauties and photographers.

J. Burba, D. Feld, G. Overbay, R. Blacklidge, and M. McMurry for Wintergreen.

"Out of Chanel No. 5!" Debbie Anderson.

Don Feld, hard working committee man.

Throttlebottom for Vice-Pres. - Dan Robbins.

Lin Schmult with Becky Brauer in a new role.

Doug Enos, "Scrap two battleships?"

Right: Lisa Gould, Chris Velbel, Libby Schneider, Chris Peterson, and Lisa Sedlacek. Above: Marvel Sampson happily married.

Ambassador Mitchell Brown protests an indignity.

Wrestlers Bob North and Rick Brown.

"The Senators played yesterday!"

"There never was so much love!"

44 In Honor Society

New members were initiated into the National Honor Society at a tea held in their honor on Nov. 20, 1975, at 8 p.m. in the learning center. All seniors with a B average for six semesters are considered for membership in the society. Faculty members who have taught at WCCHS at least one year vote on the candidates, basing their choices on the following qualities: leadership, scholarship, character, and service. A teacher must have had direct contact with a student, such as in a class, club, or sport, in order to vote for that student. A maximum of fifteen per cent of the class can be chosen.

Baccalaureate

Baccalaureate-Honors Convocation was held in Bishop Gym on June 7, 1976. Special music was provided by the orchestra and concert choir. The Rev. Larry Owen, minister of the Church of Christ, urged graduates to "Reach for the Stars." Valedictorian Richard Gartner recognized seniors who had won scholarships, and Christine Murnane named those who had been accepted into the National Honor Society (p. 77). Teachers and administrators honored senior students for their various academic, athletic, musical, or artistic accomplishments. Robert North, Pres.-Elect of the class of '77, and Timothy Sampson, 1976-77 Pres. of Student Council, assisted.

A conference championship team was envisioned by the 1975 sophomore football team, but as the season progressed it was necessary to rebuild the team's offensive line due to injury and transfer. The team showed steady improvement throughout the remainder of the season. Everyone agrees that this year's team will move up to the varsity next year and help carry on the winning, fighting spirit that our school is so proud of.

Soccer Kicks Off A New Year

In its first full year of varsity soccer competition, the team finished with a respectable record of 5 wins, 7 losses, and 2 ties. The booters started slowly but came on strong in the middle of the season. Raphael Chavez established a team record of 13 goals scored in one game and was elected honorary Co-Captain. Phil Gruca, senior goalkeeper, was elected Co-Captain and Co-Most Valuable Player, along with Rojelio Aguilar. Peter Nelson, a junior defensive back, was selected as the Most Improved Player on the squad.

The Frosh-Soph soccer team played an abbreviated schedule ending with a 1-8 season record. Although it was a losing record, the players gained much valuable playing experience that will help them in the future.

Records Shattered

This year's Track and Field Team was small in numbers but big in individuals who were outstanding. Coach Lunak defined a winner as "an athlete who consistently improves-they may not win, but they get better." The team had many winners. Sophomore Ken Mueller qualified for the state track meet by triple jumping 43 ft 6¼ in. in the district meet.

Bridging The Gap

The Bridge, which appears every two or three weeks, aims to publish news of upcoming events, to review some of the more interesting happenings, and to comment on school life and policy. The staff welcomes students who want to work on the paper even though they are not in journalism class and seeks comments from others on ways to better life at We-Go. Staff members enjoyed field trips to the Sun-Times, Oriental Institute, Chinatown, and Fermilab.

Pep-Club

Pep Club is probably one of the busiest organizations at We-Go. Beginning when school starts club members work on the coronation and the blue and white balloons that are let off for Homecoming. The club also supplies food to players, decorates the lockers of our Wildcats, and takes charge of pep assemblies. In late February they help the Pom-Pon squad with Carnation Day, and at the end of the year they sponsor Talent Night. Perhaps the club's most important contribution is promoting pep, spirit, and enthusiasm in our school.

Spass! Chouette! Ludus! Diviérte!

The Language Clubs have worked together to have a year filled with activities. In October Language Night was presented. Each club gave a skit and sold ethnic food. The clubs also participated in Homecoming, with French Club winning in the Club-Float category. At Christmas club members had a Christmas party and then caroled traditional European songs. French Club participated in a class exchange with a French class in France; Spanish Club members had Chilean pen-pals; German Club had a German Table; and Latin Club gave their annual Latin Banquet.

Exchange Student Program

"Walk together, talk together all ye people of the earth," is the motto of AFS, the American Field Service, part of the Exchange Student Program at We-Go. ESP is a committee of Student Council which raises money to send We-Go students abroad and to bring foreign students here.

Our AFS student was Shirley Mackie from Barnet, England, and our Rotary student was Marcello Campos from Brazil. We also hosted four Open Door students for a three month stay: Eurico Mello from Brazil, Pedro Cortes, Marisa Feuntes and German Claro, all from Chile. We also sent three We-Go students abroad: Beth Wampole to Chile, Lin Schmolt to Switzerland, and Becky Brauer to Swaziland, South Africa. Mr. James Garbe was the ESP Advisor.

Student Council On The Move

Student Council began the year by installing a jukebox in the cafeteria for the use of We-Go students. Homecoming was a success because of the planning and preparation of the Activities Committee. "I Hate Boys Day" was sponsored by Student Council, as were dances, movies, and the NHS tea. The Mr. Wildcat Contest was presented to raise money for the Exchange Student Program (ESP), a committee of Student Council. One of the Council's future goals is a late bus for students participating in extra-curricular activities.

The 1975-76 Executive Board consisted of Bob North, President; Kem Daily, Vice President; Linda Nichols, Secretary; Tim Sampson, Treasurer; Mike Rennels, Publicity Chairman; Marvel Sampson, ESP Chairman; Lisa Gould, Student Activities Chairman; and Peter Lo Destro, Late Bus Chairman. Co-Advisors were Mr. Wicks and Miss Hayes.

Act Well Your Part

The International Thespian Society, an organization dedicated to promoting excellence in theater in the secondary schools, is alive and active at WCCHS. With 25 active members taking part in productions this year, and 11 members joining the ranks, total membership numbered 36.

Activities this year included a very successful car wash in the fall, participation in "Hansel and Gretel," the Thespian one-acts, the musical "Of Thee I Sing," and the initiation ceremony in late spring. Preceding the initiation, a "Kangaroo Court" was presided over by Pres. Becky Brauer. Members and initiates exchanged citations for such offenses as improper display of Thespian button, pollution of the aesthetic environment, and failure to resist an officer. Sentences for the guilty included recitation of the Thespian pledge, clean-up duty, or being someone's slave for a day.

Acknowledgements: In addition to the hundreds of photographs taken by Kurt Liebezeit the staff used pictures taken by the following: Rick Brown - some wrestling candids, Joel Murphy - Talent Night, Mr. George Zoulek - senior blood drive, West Chicago Press - school "For Sale." Mrs. Gwen Reno drew the Homecoming VW, and Mr. Willard Beebe, the class numerals.

Challenge

The Challenge staff wanted to create a book that would cover the fun, the work, the joy, the humor - even the sorrow - of one school year. In this bicentennial year we also wanted to recall some of the basic beliefs that gave our forefathers determination and courage - the spirit of '76. We hope we can meet the challenge of life with this same spirit.
