SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

Beth Hallman is our senior spotlight this month. She is active in school activities and finds that it takes up a lot of time being captain of the Pom-pon squad, a member of Madrigals, Swing Choir, and Pep-Club, not to mention her job at Doran's News Agency. Beth says she would not give up any of them.

After graduation from high school, Beth plans to attend college to pursue her interest in interior design. When asked what improvements she would like to see around the school, Beth replied, "I think students should be given more responsibility." Beth's goal in the future is to grow taller.

SLAPSTICK COMEDY TO BE PRESENTED THIS WEEKEND

by Amber Ashpole

Get Ready for the laugh of the year! WCCHS is putting on a slapstick comedy called "See How They Run."

The play is set in England and is centered around a British minister (Dick Waterhouse)--who can't find his pants--and his American actress wife Penelope played by Jenny Havlin. Penelope is very outlandish and wears trousers in public! Then of course there is Miss Skillion (Margie Iuro) who takes her first drink and is drunk all through the second and third acts.

Other characters are Ida the maid--Christy Peterson; Corporal Clive Wilson, Tim Wierenga; the Bishop of Lax, Tim Murnane; the Intruder, Nick Iuro; Sergeant Towers, Andrew Woods; and the Reverend Arthur Humphrey, Terry Ferro.

Linda Nichols is student director.

"See How They Run" will be at 8 p.m. both Friday and Saturday, in the auditorium. Tickets are $1.25 for adults and $1.00 for students.

LANGUAGE FIELD TRIPS TO EVANSTON AND LAKE FOREST

Tuesday, November 16, second and third year Spanish classes went on a field trip to Barat College in Lake Forest. They saw "La Tuna," a group of Spanish University students who play and sing traditional songs. Some of these songs were sent to teachers ahead of time so that the students could participate on the day of the show. The tradition "La Tuna" originated in Medieval Salamanca and is today an important part of Spanish folklore.

The cost of the ticket for the program was $4.00. After the show the students had dinner at a Mexican Restaurant.

French students went on a field trip last Tuesday to Northwestern University in Evanston. A play written in French, was presented by French Canadian actors.

After the play, students ate lunch at a French restaurant, the Crepperie. Crepes are a pancake-like food, a specialty of the restaurant. The students ordered their meals in French.

French Club is planning many activities this year. Anyone interested in joining the club should contact president Cindy Plomb.

WRESTLERS' SEASON PROMISING

by Todd Termunde

Wrestling practice officially started Monday. With Tom Reed and Zane Bussler back this year, Coach Lee Grubbs looks at the season ve "very optimistically." Zane won sectionals two years ago and placed sixth in state. Tom won sectionals last year and placed fifth in state.

Eight varsity letterman are back: Dan Unruh, Carlos Cruz, Jeff Smothers, captains Reed and Bussler, Bob North, Miguel Cortez and Tim Norman.

John Bell and Rick Brown proved themselves last year. The Grapplers meet Downers North Saturday, and their first home meet is Tuesday with Lyons Township.
